Chamberiain Bradley said he wanted to know how that inquiry as to Mr. Sands' negotiation was getting on.

Comptroller Green—I am not ready yet to report. I have inquired as to the facts, but a have not yet reduced my report to writing. (Turning to the Chamberiain)—What is it you want to know?

The Chamberlaln—I want to know by what authority this $75,000 was paid.

The COMPROLLER—I don't know that the Sinking Pand Commissioners have anything to do with it.

The CHAMBERLAIN—I want to know that the Commissioners took action in reference to it.

The MAYOR—I think it was never spoken of before the Sinking Pund Commission in any form or shape.

The CHAMBERLAIN—There was no draft on the Treasury for this money, and I should like to know from what source this commissioners had something to do with it.

The Comptroller's Office.

At this office the "small pipe" men made an ap-plication for their pay, but the Comptroller told them that he had not yet received the payrolls. In the course of the day the Department of Public Works sent over the payrolls for October, and the Comptroller will at once have them made ready for forwarding to Mr. Cayr, so that the men may be paid without delay.

The Comptroller paid to the Department of Parks yesterday $100,000.

COMPTROLLER CONNOLLY'S CASE.

No Changes in the Situation-Motion for Re duction of Ball to be Made To-Day. "Nothing new to-day" Las become the stereo-typed answer to parties inquiring at Ludlow Street Jail for information in regard to the progress of the prisoner of State—ex-Comptroller Connolly. Day follows day, crowds of friends and sympathisers call on the late financier of the county, and there, seated In the soom watching every movement and listen-ing to every word, sits a special deputy from the Sherio's office. Mr. Connelly looks quite cheerful, and bears the imprisonment with all possible ease and sang froid-even the pres ce of a Sheriff's officer in the room. This action is entirely unprecedented, and, whatever may be its intent, it is certainly adding insult to injury

The only cases in which deputies of the Sheriff remain in strict charge of their prisoner's body by day and night, is when they have been sentenced to capital punishment. But why there should be regular changes of watches by extra deputies in the case of Mr. Connolly is certainly rather curious. It is more than ordinarily curious, inasmuch as there is a competent warden, with a full force of assistants and all the necessary parapherralia of bars and boils and iron doors and heavy gratings on the windows which have been considered hitterto safe enough to keep confined most desperate murderers, pirates, counterfeiters and criminals of all sorts.

During the day Mr. Logan, of 12th of July fame, was on duty, and was relieved by Mr. Keyes. The latter genlieman seems to know his place as a man, and while performing his duty does not intrude on the privacy of the prisoner.

Yesterday afternoon the counsel of Mr. Connolly—Messrs. McKeon, Beach, Andrews and Courtenay—were closeted with tim several hours, and started last night for Aloan, where a motion for reduction of bail will be made to-day. No new names were received yesterday on the bond, but should the motion for a reduction of bail be denied the counsel, it is said, will advise the acceptance of bondsmen in sums of from $10,000 to $50,000.

In conse quence of the patriotic action taken by the Grand lury in disposing of the cases submitted to their deliberations during the November term, by which their proffer of services to continue the good work of clearing off the heavy calendar was accepted by the City Judge, there was no occasion to swear in another Grand Jury. Judge Bedford therefore dis-charged the latter body jesterday until the 19th in-stant. In doing so Judge Bedford said:—

All those gentlemen summoned to attend as grand jurers in the Court of General Sessions for the December term are discharged until the 19th instant, for the reason that the present Grand Jury now in session requested me through their foreman to extend the term in order that they might have more time to examine into allegad frauds of a stependous character. In order to give every facility to the Grand Jury in this most pranseworthy desire, I extended the November term until the 18th instant with the sincere hope that they may make a most friid investigation into all these sillegad notorious frauds, and bring speedily and promptly to justice all those who have so guittly betraved the people, and who have so wantonly and shauefully plundered the city treasury of untold millions. AFFAIRS IN QUEBEC.

Threatened Epidemic-Terrible Suffering of the Poor-Lack of Work and Large Emi-

QUEBEC, Dec. 4, 1871. Scarlet and black fever, which have for some months past been working havoc among children in this city, have assumed a more aggravated form and threaten to become epidemic. The fevers are carrying of young and old. Yesterday two ladies, daughters of the late General Irvine, were carried off, and the of the late General Irvine, were carried off, and the flouse of Legislature adjourned to-day out of respect to the deceased. The prevalence of the disease gives rise to great fears.

There has been terrible suffering among the poorer classes of the city in consequence of the fearul cold season. The decline of shipbuilding in this port causes a scarcity of work. It is a had lookout for winter, and workmen are leaving in large numbers for the United States.

A deputation waited on the Minister of Public Works to-day, asking for the establishment of schools of navigation in Canada by the federal governments.

The Case of the Alleged Cuban Insurrection Jordan and Byan-The Equity Calendar-The Seventh Judicial Court Controversy-Another Case of Domestic Infelicity-Another Phase of the Black-Friday Suits-The Notorions Greenthall in the General Sessions

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—EQUITY CASES.

Before Judge Blatchford Judge Blatchford sat yesterday and proceeded to dispose of cases in equity, the whole session of the Court being occurred with an argument in a patent suit. The Insurrection in Cuba-Trial of Generals A statement has been made public to the effect that the cierks in the federal Courts in Chambers street are occupied night and day in filling up blank summences and writing various legal documents to be used in the approach-pied night and day in filling up blank summoness and writing various legal documents to be used in the approaching triats of the Cuban parriots, and also that the Attorney General has sent a communication to District Attorney Davis, demanding the immediate trial of General Kwan and others who are accused of violating the neutrality laws.

These statements would imply that the government, through its legal agents and representatives in this city, are demanding the apeedy trial of Generals Ryan and Jordan, whareas, from inquiries made in the oilice of the District Att orney yesterday, the contrary would seem to be she fact. Generals Ryan and Jordan have demanded trials; they insist that the indictments found against them, on the charge of giving and and comfort to the Cubans, shall be districted to the Cubans, shall be disposed of before puries, though the previous understanding was, at least in the case of General Jordan, that if the government were not ready to try him early this month they would abandon the prosecution altogether and enter a note proacqui on the indictment. What object the accused have in reew in demanding a trial at the present moment, when the government, so far as can be ascertained, is willing to abanden the indictments, cannot very easily be perceived. But probably they think that there is something just new in the relations of the United States with Cuba which would render an investigation in open court serviceable to the cause of Cuban independence. It would then the properties of the content of the government would drop these presecutions altegether so long as they have no teal-mony to rely on for a convention. The government does not appear to be unwilling to do this; but if the defendants insist upon a trial it is their right to have it, though the details of the investigation in open court serviceable to the cause of Cuban independence. It is upper to be unwilling to do this; but if the defendants insist upon a trial it is their right to have it, though the details of the investigat ings in these two suits, embodying the Coulter claims for a Civil Justiceship and a Police Justiceship, have already been reported at various times in the HERALD. But there seems no end to them. The matter came up again today, counsel for McGuire ir sisting that his case should be heard at once, it being peremptorily set down for yesteriar, Counsel for Stemmier, on the contrary, said he was not ready for trial, and the said being in the nature of one warranto proceedings he clathaed he had a right to elect which case should be tried first. The Judge put the month, when he required Stemmier to show cause why his (the Judge's) order previously given, putting his case down first for trial, should not stand, One reason, it may be stated on passents, why these cases continue so long in the courts, with a promise of their indefinite continuance there, is doubtless the tact of the multiplicity of the counsel employed. Mr. McGuire has no less than five counsel, and these embracing some of the leading members of the New York bar, his counsel being Messra. A. J. Vanderpoel, E. R. Meade, F. T. Glerry, F. W. Stonghton and William A. Beach. Before Judge Freedman.

John C. Curpenter w. Louisa Curpenter. - This is a divorce and evolving the old, worn-out story of domestic infelicities on a rather amplified scale. The papers show that the parties were married August 2, 1868, and lived with the wife's mother, at No. 55 Division street, for eight moutes subsequent to the marriage. Mr. Carpenter claims that he then discovered that this was an improper place for his wife to live, and even charges his mother-in-law with impropersizes of conduct. He, therefore, procured rooms for himself and wife in Eleventh street, but she refused to go elsewhere with him unless he would provide for her a brown stone front and a complement of household servants, which he says, he could not very well do on an income of ten dollars a week as clerk in an intelligence office. Meantime she brought a suit against him in the Court of Common Pleas for alleged cruel treatment, but the suit, for some reason, was dropped. This did indictment charging him with stealing $250 from the person of Arthur C. Taylor. The accused is an old man, and enjoys the unenviable reputation of being the most skilful pick-pocket in the country. Before the examination of the witnesses commenced the "General?" legal adviser interposed numerous technical points of law, claiming that the Court had no jurisdiction, hasmuch as that was not the November but the December term.

His Honor overnied the objection, stating that he discharged the jurors till the lith inst., which would be the commencement of the December term.

Arthur C. Taylor was then sworn, and testified that he was in the employ of A. S. Barnes & Co., corner of John and William streets; that on the 25th of November he received four packages of bills at the bank, amonnung to $550; that while opposite the store of Robert Foulds, in John street, about half-yast eleven o'clock in the morning, the crisoner came up to him and pushed against his pocket; he felt a tug, and immensately discovered that the money was going the prisoner went into Mr. Fould's store, and two nackages of the money, amounting to $150, were found lying on the conneter where the accuse was standing; there was no person encest Greenthal near the compliance when the money was powered that he would be conneter where the accuse was standing; there was no person encest Greenthal near the compliance when the money was pooked be replied, "Oh, no, I would not take your money; I came from alrows the street, and had nothing to do with it." Mr. Howe declaned to cross-eccamine the witness on the ground that the accused was entitled to have a jery selected form.

Mr. Howe declared to cross-examine the witness on the ground that the accused was entitled to have a jury selected from the panel aumnoned to serve during the becember form. BROOKLYN COMMON COUNCIL.

What the City Fathers Did Yesterday-The Treasurer Gives an Account of His Stew-

A regular weekly meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Brooklyu was held yesterday af ternoon. The chair was occupied by President Bergen, and among the citizens assembled were many prominent and influential taxpayers, who appeared to take a lively interest in the proceedings.

Alderman NoLAN moved that the reading of the ninutes be dispensed with, and that the Board proceed to elect a supervisor for the Fourteenth ward, in place of John L. Murphy, resigned. He also of-in place of John L. Marphy, resigned. He also offered a resolution declaring John A. Carroll, the Supervisor elect, the aniy elected officer of said ward. A vote was accordingly taken, which resulted in Carroll receiving a majority of all the bailots cast, whereupon he was declared duly elected.

A communication was received from Mayor Kalbfletsch vetoling a resolution for the laying of Scrimshaw pavement on certain streets. The Mayor does not believe in the article indicated as a pavement, nor will he sanction the mode of paying for the work by the issuing of city assessment bonds for that purpose. He also disapproves of the resolution to extend the term of service of certain elerks in the Tax Collector's office, as there is no longer any need for their employment, and because the saiary fund is very much reduced.

The annual report of the City Treasurer, in which that official goes into a somewhat formidable array of figures, was received and ordered to be printed in the minutes. As ex office of Treasurer of the board of Education the same official gave a comprehensive account of his financial stewardship.

The Board then, on motion, adjourned for one week.

THE BROOKLYN REFORM MOVEMENT.

Meeting of the Citizens' Committee. The Citizens' Committee of Seventy-five met last night at their rooms in Montague street, Mr. Woodruff presiding. The members of the committee spent some time in discussing the new city charter Mr. Bayliss thought it would be well to employ Mr. Vau Cott and Benry C. Murphy, as it would be impossible to get the matter before the Legislature unless this aid was given. It was necessary to have a fair and equitable mode of taxation.

At the close of the lengthy discussion the question was referred to the Legislative Committee.

A motion to abolish executive sessions was voted

The Prosecuting Committee announced that they ad some important matters to present to the comnad some important matters to present to the com-nittee. They then went into executive session.

Michael J. The accused pleaded not guilty, and the trial of their case was set down for Thursday next.

Jacob Worth, a prominent republican politician, of Brooklyn, and Heury Jones and Jacob Stark, in spectors in the Sevenin district of the Sixteenth ward, were indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of naving destroyed ballots of election and substituting others in their place, and of having ejected one Parker from the poling place. They likewise entered pleas of not guilty, and the trial was set down for Friday nexe. Judge McCue presided, and the court room was KINGS COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

A Stormy Meeting of the Board-The Keepership of the Penitentiary-A Traublesome Question to Decide.

The Kings county Board of Supervisors met yesterday afternoon, and as it was removed that a keeper of the Pentientiary was to be appointed, there were present numerous friends of the various applicants for the lucrative position named. When the Clerk, in calling the roll, reached the name of John Carroll, Supervisor Newman, of the Ninth ward, who is a candidate for the position in the gift of the Board, wanted to know who Mr. Carroll was. His certificate of election by the Board of Aldermen was then read, setting torth that John L. Murphy, Supervisor of the Fourteenth ward, having resigned, John Carroll had been appointed in his stead.

Supervisor Newman entered his protest against Carroll taking his seat as a member of the Board.

Mayor Kalbfleisch stated that he, as Mayor, constituted a portion of the Common Council and had not sanctioned the election of Carroll.

Supervisor Osborn, Chairman, here declared that Supervisor Newman's point of order was not well taken.

Supervisor Harman appealed from the decision of the Chair, and, a vote having been taken, the Chair was sustained by a of vote 21 yeas to 6 nays, Supervisor Newman arose and desired that Judge Deimar, who was sitting by his side, should be re-other gentlemen who were then inside the railing.

The motion was carried.
The motion was carried.
The special order of the day, which was the adoption of the resolution to appoint a keeper of the Penitentiary, was then taken up, when a warm discussion arose, which was participated in by nearly all of the members present. A motion to postpone the matter until the 1st of January was ultimately carried, after which the Board adjourned, amid leelings which were far removed from being smicaole, both among the members and the friends of the rival candidates.

THE RODE SUICIDE.

Close of the Investigation. Coroner Schirmer yesterday morning concluded his investi-gation into the circumstances attending the death of Marie Rode, the French woman, whose dead body was found foat-ing in the dock at pier No. 2 Fast River, as heretofore fully re-ported in the HERALD. The Coroner was usable to obtain any further testimony of importance, and from the evidence previously edicted the jury were fully naturaled that decessed committed suchle by drowning, and accordingly rendered a verdict to that effect.

Shipping Notes.

For a short time past there has been floating about in Liv-erpool commercial circles a rumored intention of amalgamaerpool commercial circles a rumored intention of amalgama-tion between an extensive Liverpool steam shipping com-pany and one located in Glasgow. Recently this rumor re-ceived additional currency and some credence by the more pointed assertion that terms of amalgamation have been ar-ranged for conjoining the Montreal Osean Steamship Com-pany with the Anchor line of Glasgow North American ateamships. It is further stated that a meeting of the neads of the two firms named took place in Glasgow on the 18th ult for arranging terms of the proposed amalgamation. This arrangement, it is said, is with a view to get rid of the threatened opposition of a steam line from Barrow-in-Fur-ness.
